Dear Mother,

A few lines to tell you that I am now in New York State and still going East. We went through Devon, and are just going into New York. She's some state.
I'm certainly feeling fine now and am enjoying every bit of the trip.
This certainly is the great East.
I'll never regret taking this trip. Don't worry about me because I like this life. Robert.
